LOYOLA HOSTS OSL JUDO CHAMPIONSHIPS

Loyola College will play host to the OSL Judo Championships on Saturday, February 22, between 1:00 and 5:00 p.m. in the Athletic Complex. John McConachie, Loyola's capable man behind the scenes, will direct the Tournament - along with Loyola Coach Masayuki Hisataka, a 7th Dan Black Belt in Karate and 5th Dan Black Belt in Judo.

Fifty competitors from five schools will be competing. Teams from CMR, U of Sherbrooke, Bishop's and the host school will attempt to wrest the title won last year by RMC. Titles will be on the line in four weight divisions - lightweight, middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight. Admission is free to all interested parties.
